

Email scam alert

There is a false email circulating stating that Red River Bank customers need to click on a link to confirm their account information. The link uses the words Red River Bank Abuse Department. Do not click on this link.

This scam is designed to gain access to your computer so inappropriate programs can be installed on your computer.

Red River Bank does not need to verify your account information in this way.

If you receive any of these types of emails, please forward to it@redriverbank.net .

Here is a sample of the email scam

Dear Valued Member,

According to our Terms of Service, you are required to confirm your account by the following link, or it will be suspended within 24 hours due to security reasons.

<http://www.redriverbank.net/confirm.php?account>

After following the instructions in the sheet, your account will continue to function as normal.

We apologize for any inconvenience.

Sincerely, Redriverbank Abuse Department
